

The Ida B. Wells Memorial Foundation

The Ida B. Wells Memorial Foundation seeks to protect, preserve and promote Wells' legacy. We support organizations and programs that focus on education, superior journalism, social justice, equality and integrity.

The Foundation was established in 1988 in Chicago, IL by five of her grandchildren. Several of her descendants are currently involved in preserving her legacy.

Ida B. Wells Scholarship

The Foundation established the scholarship in 2009, and annually awards $1,000 to three deserving students who attend Ida B. Wells' alma mater, Rust College, in Holly Springs, Mississippi. The Foundation is committed to providing assistance to students who excel in education and show leadership qualities at this historically black college. To date 21 scholarships have been awarded for a total of $21,000.

Donald L. Duster Scholarship

Established in 2015, the inaugural $1,000 scholarship was awarded to one deserving student at The University of Illinois in Champaign/Urbana, IL – the alma mater of business executive, Donald L. Duster (1932-2013) who was also Ida B. Wells' grandson.

Cultural Institutions and Projects

The Foundation provides support and information to organizations, projects and programs that work to promote and preserve the legacy of Ida B. Wells. These include, but are not limited to the Ida B. Wells-Barnett Museum in Holly Springs, MS, The Ida B. Wells Commemorative Art Committee in Chicago, IL and Tennessee History for Kids in Nashville, TN.

Enclosed is my check to help support The Ida B. Wells Memorial Foundation in its efforts to help students receive an education and assist in the preservation of Wells' legacy. I understand that my contribution is tax deductible and will receive a letter for a contribution of $250 or more.
